LOCAL BRIEFS.

Will Fall Some Cavities—The Dental society will meet at the Commercial club tonight at 8:15.

Furnish a New Club—Furniture for the new Commercial club building is now ready to be installed. The finishing touches being given the whole establishment. It seems that all will be ready for an opening in the middle of October.

Commercial Club Delegates—At a meeting held at the Commercial club Tuesday, delegates were elected to the intermountain good roads convention at Ogden, Sept. 23, 24 and 25. They are as follows: George F. Odell, H. F. Tibbels, L. E. Gilmer, N. H. Peterson and J. H. Caine.

Aged Man Hit by Auto—John R. Howard, of Sandy, who is 70 years old, was knocked down by an automobile owned and driven by J. William Knight, of Provo, yesterday afternoon directly in front of Z. C. M. L. He escaped serious injury and was able to go to his home.

Three Typhoid Cases—The city board of health received report this morning of three new cases of typhoid fever. The victims are a child named Cooper, 465 Sixth avenue, Waterloo; Nellie Moody, 11 years old, 1169 Buena street and H. Daving, 21 years old, No. 4 Bedford Villa.

Director Peery Resigns—The resignation of Harold J. Peery, of Ogden as a member of the state industrial school board was accepted yesterday with regret by Governor Spry. Mr. Peery resigned on account of business demands on his time. A successor will be appointed soon.

Hit by a Truck—Samuel Gadd has been arrested by Deputy Sheriff Charles Coates of Bingham on the charge of riding a truck, and was taken to the county jail. He is alleged to have obtained $90. Gadd had $45.60 in his pockets when arrested at Bluffdale.

Peach that is a Peach—Israel Barlow Jr., of West Jordan, brought to the Deseret News today a sample peach from his orchard. By actual measurement the fruit stretched the tape at 12 inches. It is of the Utah Orange variety and is the only fruit to find with the sample is that it will not go into an ordinary fruit jar.

Cleaning Up Cottonwood—Dr. T. B. Beatty of the state board of health has dispatched a force of men to clear away cottonwood canyon to clear away filth and nuisances there. After attending to this canyon, it is probable that City Creek will be a band of sheep eating off the foliage at the head of Emigration canyon.

Governor Asked to Talk—Governor Spry has received a telegram from the committee on program of the American Mining congress advising him that he had been given a place on the Governor's day program, Friday, Sept. 30, and inviting him to speak on the subject of "Conservation in Relation to Western Development." Governor Spry will endeavor to be there.

Distinguished Party at Ogden—Accompanied by a retinue of 25 persons, Prince Paul, of China, and his imperial representative of the flower kingdom, passed through Ogden in a special train this afternoon on his way to Philadelphia. Among the party are Charles M. Schab, the Chinese king, Commander Yung Kwai of the Chinese navy and Commander Gillis, representing the federal government.

Deputy Collectors Named—With the idea of facilitating tax collections and aiding citizens of the county in the outside districts, the county commissioners have appointed four special collectors, whose duty it will be to collect taxes in their respective districts. The appointments are as follows: Bingham, C. W. Buckholz; Sandy, W. W. Wilson; Midvale, W. D. Fitzgerald; Murray, A. Bradford.

File Water Applications—H. C. Baker and H. J. Craven of Ogden have filed an application with the state engineer for permission to appropriate fifty feet of the waters of Paradise Creek, in Cache county for power purposes. A. F. Dornus has also made application for a cubic foot of unappropriated water from a tunnel in Settlement canyon in Tooele county, the water to be used in a water works system for the city of Tooele.

Health Theater a Feature—The city board of health will give a practical exhibit in hygiene and sanitation during the state fair by means of an exhibit and moving picture show. Progress made in the betterment of the food supply will be shown, with special attention paid to dairy inspection. Photographs of Utah dairy farms and establishments will be shown with a stereoscopic. The "health theater" will occupy a prominent position on the fair grounds.

Old-Time Friends—An old friend walked in on Chief Chiof yesterday and they had both changed so much in appearance since they had last met that neither recognized the other. The friend is J. J. Marklein, a former alderman in his native city of Cincinnati, and once a prominent politician in Ohio. Mr. Marklein is now campaigning a string of race horses for the sport incident to the races. He is going to race his horses at the coming meet in Ogden.

Sessions Loses Limbs—Orson Sessions, who two weeks ago was burnt by electric wires at Bountiful, was operated on yesterday at St. Mark's hospital, his right arm being cut off above the elbow and his left leg below the knee. At noon he had recovered from the effects of the anaesthetic, and was doing well. The attending physicians were Drs. Kessler, Critchlow and Worthington. The accident occurred where the Davis county Independent Telephone lines cross the main power Bamberger wires.

Pioneer Woman Called—One of the pioneers of 1849, Mrs. Hannah Casta Shafer, widow of John Shafer, died in Salt Lake City, at 7 p. m. Tuesday evening at the age of 84. The deceased was born in Indiana, June 27, 1826 and came to Salt Lake City with the early settlers of 1849. She lived for some time at Nauvoo, Ill., before it was settled by the Latter-day Saints and an island in the Mississippi river still bears her maiden name, Casto. Mrs. Shafer's family established the first nursery in the upper Mississippi valley.

Will Inspect Fort Douglas—Brigadier General Earl D. Thomas, commanding the department of the Colorado, will reach Salt Lake this afternoon on his annual inspection tour.

Thursday he will visit Fort Douglas, where Major Willis T. May is in command in the absence of Colonel Walter S. Scott. The distinguished visitor will be given a reception at the fort, which will likely include a dress parade of all the troops. The ceremonies to be held will depend upon the wishes of the general and will be held at such hours as he may designate.

Woolgrowers to Protest—Western woolgrowers are arranging to have a strong committee appear before the tariff board which will probably meet in the near future, to protest against any reduction of the tariff on wools, according to C. B. Stewart, secretary of the Utah Woolgrowers' association. The National association holds that if there is a reduction of the tariff on wool it will be possible for outside wool to undersell the western wool on the eastern market. This they claim will wreck the wool industry in the west and millions of dollars will be lost as a result.

Delegates From Auto Club—Five members of the automobile association of Utah were appointed yesterday by President C. A. Quigley to represent the association at the good roads convention to be held at Ogden, Sept. 23, 24 and 25. Those appointed are: W. J. Halloran, Dr. E. D. Woodruff, W. J. Burton, Henry Dunwoody and S. H. Shannon. On Monday, the closing day of the convention, the automobile club will run an excursion to Ogden to take part in the business session of the convention, which was left undone by the Weber county commissioners in order to be used for exhibition purposes.
